

SPJ-LA MIXER: THE ROAD FROM FACT TO FICTION

TUESDAY, JAN. 26

Writer TJ Sullivan has traveled the road from journalism to book author and will share his insights at a Society of Professional Journalists' mixer on Jan. 26 in downtown LA.

Sullivan has written for several publications, including the Los Angeles Times, and is a contributor at LAObserved.com. He's also the author of "Boon," the story of a young newspaper reporter who believes in the power of truth, at least until she tries to buy a house in the suburbs of LA.

The mixer is free and open to all! Please let us know you're coming by sending an e-mail to: spjlosangeles@gmail.com

Founded in 1909 as Sigma Delta Chi, SPJ promotes the free flow of information vital to a well-informed citizenry; works to inspire and educate the next generation of journalists; and protects First Amendment guarantees of freedom of speech and press. To learn more about SPJ-LA, visit our Web site: spjla.wordpress.com

WHAT: SPJ-LA's January Mixer

WHO: Our guest will be writer TJ Sullivan

WHEN: 6:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Jan. 26

WHERE: We'll meet in the back room at the Redwood Bar and Grill, 316 W. 2nd Street in downtown L.A.; 213-680-2600. Street and lot parking is available in the area. The bar is close to the Civic Center Red Line Metro stop.

COST: It's free fun for all! (You'll have to buy your own drinks. Happy hour ends at 7 p.m. so get your drinks early!)